meeting because Mr. Hall took a Miss Van Dusen home. Louise quotes a Miss or Mrs. Bennett with this story. Mrs. Mills and Mr. Hall were seen together many times on a one man trolley car, also that on the day of the funeral Mrs. Hall said she did not want the murderer brought to life. Mrs. Jamison lives at 143 Suidan Street and is a choir singer. A girl that really knew is Elizabeth E. Lanygell 25 Washington Street former employee of Mrs. Hall also Henry Stryker who worked on the farm. He is not working for her at the present time. Informed that Mrs. Hall would generally call on telephone a Mrs. Cathcart, who lives next to the Church on George Street. On October 14th informed that Oliver a private detective of New Brunswick and who is supposed to be mixed up with Stricker might know something about the case.

Copy of note sent by Mrs. Hall to Charlotte:- Always think the best, always have faith, always have every hope, always have love, faithfully signed-F.M.H.

Nora Gildea wife of Patrick Gildea, worked as a cook for Mrs. Hall two years and six months.

Louise told Barbara that Jim was to the house about 9 or 10 A.M. and said his wife was missing too. At about 1:45 P.M. on Saturday, Louise said to Barbara there is Jim Mills up at the house, I think he is crying.

Louise heard over the telephone on September 14th, 1922, Yes, Yes, yes, that's too bad, yes I was going down to the Church in a little while can't we make an appointment for later about a quarter after eight. This call came in about 7:45 P.M. Mr. Hall then called Mrs. Hall and said he was going out to make a call, "I won't be gone long dearie".

Mr. William E. Leupp who lives near the Phillips farm heard four shots at about 9:20 P.M. on the night of September 14th, while sitting on the verandah with his brother's nurse.

On October 16th, 1922. Also informed that a Mr. Bowers heard the shots.
